

Publication: Placentia News-Times; Date: Jan. 24, 2008; Section: Snapshots; Page: 8

Tea time

Photos by ROD VEAL

Miss Placentia 2008 hopefuls had a recent tea party with their little sisters. Along with some etiquette lessons there was also some lessons on just have a little fun.

The Miss Placentia scholarship pageant will be Feb. 2. The Outstanding Teen competition starts at 2 p.m. followed by the Miss Placentia contest at 6:45 p.m. Tickets are $15 for either event and are available from the Placentia Chamber of Commerce office. Information: 714 528-1873.

HAVING FUN: Angela Roh, 17, left, and 'little sister' Kiannah Dole, 8, hang out during the tea party.

ETIQUETTE LESSON: Lauren Howard, Miss Placentia 2007, gives her potential successors and their 'little sisters' an etiquette lesson.

ROCKIN LITTLE SISTER: Samantha Howard, 5, rides a rocking horse while waiting for the tea party to begin.

ORANGE YOU HAVING FUN? Seven-year-old Jamie Earlywine and 'big sister' Stacy Rusul, 11, kid around with some orange slices.

ETIQUETTE: Abri Magdeleno, 6, follows directions on how to properly hold her fork.

BLOW: Alyshia Assal, 11, can't seem to get her kazoo to blow as 'little sister' Naomi Myers, 8, blows away.

PROPER GRASP: Gina Gonzales, left, gets a hand from Diamond Hairston during an etiquette lesson at the tea party.